Copa Airlines Wins Fourth Consecutive SkyTrax Award for Best Airline in Central America, Mexico and The Caribbean

Airline also earns "Best Cabin Staff" recognition

PANAMA CITY, Aug 16, 2007 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ --

Copa Airlines, subsidiary of Copa Holdings S.A. (NYSE: CPA), has been named best airline in Central America, Mexico and the Caribbean for the fourth consecutive year in a survey conducted by well-known market research company SkyTrax.

Copa Airlines also received recognition for "Best Cabin Staff" in Central America, Mexico and the Caribbean. The designation rates the boarding process, drink and food service, and crew enthusiasm and problem-solving efficiency.

"We are pleased to receive this award, which once again demonstrates our commitment to our customers and our leadership in the region," said Pedro Heilbron, CEO of Copa Airlines. "This honor is a reflection of the world-class service for which we are known, as well as the efforts of our coworkers who constantly strive for excellence and to offer our passengers the best travel experience possible."

The SkyTrax (www.worldairlineawards.com/) research represents the largest worldwide study of airline passengers, who base their decisions on the quality of the product and service the airlines offer their customers. The study was based on more than 12 million responses of passengers of 94 different nationalities.

Copa Airlines (www.copaair.com) is one of the principal passenger airlines in Latin America. Operating from its strategic position at the Hub of the Americas in the Republic of Panama, Copa currently operates 126 daily flights to 40 destinations in 21 countries in North, Central and South America, and the Caribbean.
